Jer's Chocolates Have Received Six International Taste Awards

Chocolates are undoubtedly one of the most popular holiday gift options on the market and you will not find a more reputable provider than Jer's Chocolates, a company based in Southern California that has been the recipient of six International Taste Awards. Their handmade chocolates are made individually in miniscule batches in order to ensure high quality results and they do not utilize artificial additives or preservatives.

Jer's Chocolates incorporates all natural premium chocolates such as dark chocolate, milk chocolate and white chocolate as well as all natural peanut butter to create an extensive variety of popular flavors. The company features eleven unique varieties that are sure to appeal to any food lover with a distinct sweet tooth.

The four flavors of Jer's Chocolate are The Original Incrediball, The Pretzo Change-O, The Toffee Break and The Cara Mella. The flavors are available in dark, milk or white chocolate with the exception of the Cara Mella, which is available in dark or milk chocolate.

The Original Incrediball features their Original Crispy Peanut Butter recipe, which includes rice crisps and all natural peanut butter. Pretzo Change-O features baked pretzel bits while Toffee Break blends toffee chips with peanut butter and chocolate. Cara Mella mixes creamy caramel with all natural chocolate and peanut butter to create a taste that is simply to die for.
